PROJECTS

Portfolio

I developed a responsive React web application with an intuitive user interface, featuring a stylish dark mode option seamlessly integrated using Redux Toolkit. This project showcases my proficiency in frontend development, user experience design, and state management with React.js and Redux Toolkit.

MERN Ecommerce App

I created a MERN Ecommerce application, seamlessly integrating MongoDB, Express.js, React.js, and Node.js. Notably, the app boasts a sophisticated dark mode feature, enhancing user experience in various lighting conditions. With secure user authentication, seamless product management, and intuitive checkout processes, this project showcases my proficiency in full-stack web development.
